

Named Jordan's Musical Ambassador, Jordanian virtuoso Farah Siraj balances a career that spans the US, Europe and the Middle East. Farah has performed at some of the world's most prestigious platforms, including the UN, Nobel Prize Hall, the World Economic Forum, The John F. Kennedy Center in Washington DC, Lincoln Center in New York, MTV, Coke Studio, the TV show Good Morning Live in the USA, MBC TV in the Middle East and the Antena de Oro Awards of Spain. Farah has performed before HM King Abdullah II and HM Queen Rania of Jordan, HM King Juan Carlos of Spain, HH Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum and HE Secretary-General of the United Nations, Ban Ki-moon. In addition, Farah represents Jordan annually on UN World Peace Day and is an honorary board member of the World Music Institute in New York.

After the release of her first album, Nomad (2011) Farah presented the world premiere of her new work, entitled The Arabian Jazz Project, featuring original compositions and traditional Middle Eastern tunes set to a jazz context.

In 2014, Farah released her latest album, Dunya, meaning “world” in Arabic and Hindi. She currently leads an ethnically diverse quintet of Arabian Flamenco Jazz, with world-class musicians from the Middle East, Europe, the US and South America, including music from all four regions.

Farah is currently recording a new album to be released in 2020. In between recording and touring internationally, she is also engaged in several artistic residencies within the United States.

