

“Teho.'s musicians are extremely versatile professionals, who know the Nordic Folk Music tradition inside out. Järvelä and Hyväluoma combine musical elements widely and creatively, they master their instruments on a virtuoso level giving them unlimited musical possibilities.”, complimented director Hannu Saha in his speech for the winners of the Konsta Jylhä Competition, the most significant folk music competition in Finland, at summer 2016.

Teho. is a Finnish power-fiddle duo that explodes musical boundaries while having roots deeply in the tradition. Teho's fiddlers grew up in Central Ostrobothnia – an area known for its extremely virile and rich folk music life.

Their music combines fluently Finnish traditional fiddling, Norwegian Halling, Swedish Polska, Bebop, Western Swing, and contemporary folk music. Improvisation also plays a big part of the duo's sound. Tero Hyväluoma and Esko Järvelä are both top-notch names in the Nordic folk music field and cross-over freelancers without genre boundaries. They have played together for years in various different bands and projects, including one of the most well known Finnish folk bands, Frigg. Teho.'s debut album was nominated for Finnish Grammy (Emma Awards) in 2018. So far, Teho. has toured in FINLAND, NORWAY, USA, CANADA, ESTONIA, GERMANY and LUXEMBOURG.

“...virtuosic and occasionally off-the-wall Finnish fiddle duo
Teho.”

Teho. bowl over their listeners making them wonder how only two fiddlers can create such a full and massive thrill.
